

About VSUFCU

Virginia State University Federal Credit Union offers a friendly atmosphere. Our management staff is dedicated to offering the best possible service at the lowest possible cost to you.

Policies are established by the VSUFCU Board of Directors and are followed by the management in your best interest. An annual meeting gives all members the chance to get together and encourages the spirit of goodwill in our cooperative banking.

Borrowing from Virginia State University Federal Credit Union costs you less than borrowing from almost any other lending institution. Virginia State University Federal Credit Union is a full service financial institution.

The Field of Membership

The Credit Union's charter defines the Credit Union field of membership (who may join the credit union). Our charter currently includes the following field of membership:

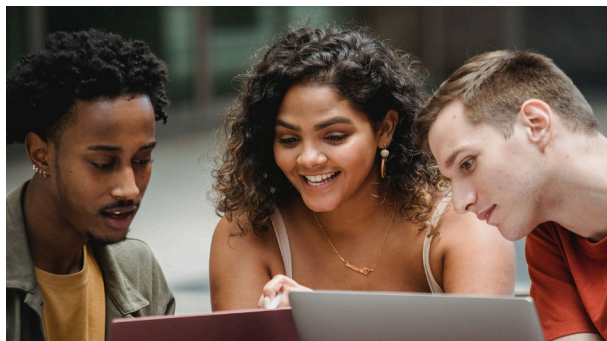

- Virginia State University faculty, staff, contract employees, alumni, and students.
- Employees of Petersburg Public Schools and Chesterfield County Public Schools
- Immediate members of their families and any organizations of such persons.

Eligible candidates may join the Virginia State University Federal Credit Union by completing an account card at the credit union office.

When applying for membership, you pay a minimum of $7. The credit union membership fee is $2, and the remainder is deposited to your savings account.
